

Sunday School Arya Samaj Markham @

Vedic Cultural Centre

4345 14th Avenue, Markham, Ontario.

School year September 2011- June 2012

Time: Sundays 10:00A.M -12:30 P.M.

Sunday School is run by Canada and Ontario trained and experienced Teachers

Our Mission at Sunday School is to develop the children of Hindu/Vedic community by providing education in Vedic/Hindu/Indian values & culture in a social and enjoyable atmosphere. The goal is to promote in children of Arya Samaj a sense of belonging, a sense of identity and a sense of pride in their rich, Vedic/Hindu Heritage.

Children learn:

A	Yoga	Beginner Yoga (Meditation, Pranayam, asana) or Lazium. Under the able supervision of Yoga teachers.
B	Religion & Culture	These are introduced to the children in an easy-to-grasp story-telling, narration, mantras & bhajans format.
C	Hindi	Learning beginner Hindi script (Devnagari). Practical, conversational, situational Hindi of everyday use.
D	Presentation & Performing Arts	The knowledge of above 3 components of learning will be incorporated into speeches, dialogue, skits, dance and drama based on Vedic/Hindu/Indian heritage

Children also

- Participate in Aartee and concluding exercises at the regular Satsangs
- Partake freshly prepared 'Prasad-dinner' (after aartee)
- Besides enjoying a beautiful, elegant, large, open building (bhavan) for learning- environment they participate in all cultural and religious functions of the Samaj and Pic-nics, Bal-Divas', special-days, visits of sites and places and other excursions.
